

BANK MAGNATE CALLS DIVORCE SUIT "IDIOTIC"

Andrews Hints at Black-mail in Charges of Husband of Housekeeper.

SHE QUILTS HIS HOUSE.

Klemme, in Jail, Repeats Accusation That Home Is Ruined.

SHOWS A PHOTOGRAPH.

Banker's Wife Committed to Bloomingdale Insane Asylum Three Years Ago.

Beside his plate at the breakfast table today Constant A. Andrews, President of the United States Savings Bank, Director in the Metropolitan Art Museum, Museum of Natural History and the New York Botanical Garden, found a letter of resignation from his housekeeper, Mrs. Anna M. Klemme.

In Yorkville Court late yesterday Frank Klemme, of No. 1325 Greenwich street, Philadelphia, when charged by Mrs. Klemme with desertion and non-support, replied that Mr. Andrews was responsible for the separation between him and his wife. As Mrs. Klemme left the courtroom she was served with papers in a divorce suit, in which Klemme names Banker Andrews as co-respondent. Mr. Andrews denounced his accuser to-day as a "raving idiot."

Banker Andrews is a venerable-looking, spectacled, white-haired gentleman of much prominence in social, financial and church circles. He was formerly President of the United States Realty Corporation, and lately has been prominent in opposing the savings bank tax bill. He has been married for many years, but his wife, Blanche Landgraf Andrews, is in a sanitarium. She is a sister of Mrs. John Ellis Roosevelt, whose husband is a cousin of the President.

Idiotic, Says Andrews.

At his home, No. 75 Madison avenue, to-day, Mr. Andrews said:

"A man of my position in the social and financial world ought to be safe from the attacks of a man like Klemme. His charges are idiotic. When I came down to the breakfast table this morning I found a letter of resignation from Mrs. Klemme at my plate. It is quite true that she has been the housekeeper for this household. She was a very satisfactory housekeeper and I am very sorry to see her go. She was only the housekeeper, however, not my housekeeper, but the housekeeper for my household."

"She apologized for the notoriety she had brought upon me, and said it was through no fault of hers, but under the circumstances she thought it better to leave her and go out of the city. I say again I am sorry she had to go. She is a good woman and she has been out- ragedly treated by her husband."

"I have been told that this Klemme is to name me as co-respondent in a divorce suit. I have not been served with any papers in any sort of a proceeding. All I know of this matter I learned from the newspaper men who were in Yorkville Court yesterday. If I am served or if my name is used improperly I will protect myself. I will not let anything like this go by default. I consider it a duty I owe to the public to fight any reflection on my name, and I will not tolerate even a suggestion of blackmail. My name should not have been mentioned in the trouble between Klemme and his wife."

No Such Picture, He Says.

"I see mention made of a picture of Mrs. Klemme and myself. There is no such picture in existence. None was ever taken. I would like to see that photograph when Klemme is reported to have produced in court."

"I first met Mrs. Klemme several years ago. On returning from Europe our home was not ready for occupancy and we boarded for a few weeks with the Klemmes in Lexington avenue. Later Mrs. Klemme came to Mrs. Andrews and said something about her husband deserting her, and she was engaged as my housekeeper, a position she held off and on ever since."

Mrs. Andrews is not at home. She is ill and in the country resting."

Mrs. John Ellis Roosevelt, of No. 475 Madison avenue, said:

"I have heard the stories about Mrs. Klemme and Mr. Andrews. All I care to say is that we will do all we can."

Jolly Good-Fellowship!

"THE" M'MANUS TO BE HOST OF 10,000 TOTS ON MILITARY DRINK

West Side Political Leader to Give Great Memorial Day Party.

It would not be the real thing in Decoration Day to-morrow without the only original McManus May party—"The" McManus annual treat.

As usual, the grand procession leaves No. 42 West Forty-ninth street at 8:30, and proceeds to the Sixty-sixth street ball grounds of Central Park, not to Eighty-first street as of old. But on the way the cortege will stop to pick up the queen. She is Katharine Macdonald, thirteen years old, one of the prettiest pupils in Public School 17 on West Forty-seventh street.

She will wait, like royalty, in her home, at No. 408 West Forty-eighth street, for the tuneless approach of "The" McManus, 150 flower girls, a band of seventy-five musicians, and the King of the May—one Joseph G. Fleming, of No. 448 West Forty-eighth street, a pupil in class 5B of Public School 67.

Every one will be asked from "The" McManus to the finest flower girl, saving the May King. He will ride in a coach banked with daisies and smilax, drawn by two Gypsy Shetland ponies. This equipment is new this year, and the most charming one that May royalty ever rode in.

The band will play "Hail to the Queen," and the fair dame will then be properly escorted to her seat by King Joseph. The procession will then move on, 10,000 strong, to the main of the band and the waving of 10,000 old flags.

The events of this year's party will be two ball games, played for gold medals, one match between the boys of St. Malachy School, of West Forty-ninth street, and the Sacred Heart Parochial School, in West Fifty-first street, and the other between Grammar School No. 51, in West Forty-fourth street, and School No. 17, in West Forty-seventh street.

AT ODESSA; 2,000

SAILORS JAILED

Officials Fearful of Out-break and Double the Guards Everywhere.

ODESSA, May 29.—Two thousand blue jackets suspected of disaffection are confined in the naval barracks at Sebastopol. The garrison there is also distrustful and will be replaced by troops from elsewhere.

The arsenal and all the official buildings and residences are doubly guarded, while, in consequence of an attempt to dynamite the Inkerman tunnel, infantry guards are stationed at every twenty paces along the entire road from Lovos to Sebastopol.

Three more of those who were wounded at Sebastopol May 27 by the explosion of a mine, are expected to-day, making a total of twelve deaths.

It is said that Admiral Skrydlov, of the Black Sea fleet, will shortly succeed Vice-Admiral Choupkin in command of the Black Sea fleet.

RUSSIANS EXECUTED AS CLEMENCY IS DEMANDED.

RIGA, Latvia, May 29.—The eight murderers of Police Chief Porzitski were executed to-day. The bodies of the men were thrown into the Riga River. The bodies of the men were thrown into the Riga River. The bodies of the men were thrown into the Riga River.

TERRY WALKS, BRIT RIDES TO POLICE COURT

Former Attended by a Great Throng and Later Neglected.

Terry McGovern and Jimmy Britt met in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day in the presence of an audience that packed the courtroom to the rafters.

Outside there was another crowd that blocked Sixth avenue. Magistrate Breen postponed the cases of all the men arrested for their participation in the Madison Square Garden boxing bouts last night until Thursday.

Magistrate Pool will be on the bench then and it will be his last day as a City Magistrate. There ought to be something doing.

Although McGovern may have had the best of the contest last night he showed many signs of punishment to-day.

The surprising Mr. McGovern was the first of the principals to reach the vicinity of the Court House. He was attended by a mob of followers. Apparently they had been all night covering the distance between Madison Square and Jefferson Market, with occasional stops into places open on the way. If they missed any place the omission was not noticeable.

Terry had two black eyes and a big cut on his forehead. He wore a baggy suit of clothes, a passe sweater, a cap and a hair cut that was a cross between a marcel wave and a half of matted tress studding. Closely attending Terry was his counsel, Henry Goldsmith.

After McGovern had been taken to the courtroom, Terry and his followers invaded the courtroom. Talk about a busy day on Ellis Island!

Third Deputy Police Commissioner Blatner, Inspector Schmittberger and Capt. Higgins, of the Tenderloin station, represented the majesty of the law. They greeted Terry in a friendly way as he forced his way to the bench, showing there was no hard feeling. The prisoners out in the pen held a battle royal for a chance at the barred door from which a view of the scene in the courtroom might be had.

The somewhat surprising Mr. Britt appeared on the scene about half an hour after McGovern.

Britt Comes in Coupe.

Mr. Britt was neatly but not gaudily attired. He wore a purple stock that harmonized with the purple shade surrounding both his eyes. His clothes were pressed in the most approved style, and his hair was combed down to such a sleek surface that had a fly alighted on it there would have been a fly with a broken leg. Mr. Britt was unattended, and he was not cheered for Mr. Britt.
